ANNEXURE D: CODE OF CONDUCT

Preamble

TRA Ltd. recognises that illegal or fraudulent betting may be harmful to sport.

Accordingly, TRA Ltd. and its member organisations have an obligation to address the threat of match-fixing and any associated corruption that may follow.

TRA Ltd. and its member organisations have a zero tolerance for illegal gambling and match-fixing.

TRA Ltd. has developed a National Policy on Integrity and Gambling (Integrity and Gambling Policy) to:

- protect and maintain the integrity of the sport of shooting and TRA Ltd.;
- protect against any efforts to impact improperly the result of any event or competition;
- establish a uniform rule and consistent scheme of enforcement and penalties;
- adhere to the National Policy on Match-fixing in Sport as agreed by Australian Governments.

A copy of the Integrity and Gambling Policy can be obtained from TRA Ltd. upon request and is also available on the TRA Ltd.'s website.

TRA Ltd. will engage necessary technical expertise to administer, monitor and enforce the Policy.

1. Application

The Policy, as amended from time to time, includes a defined list of Relevant Persons to whom this Code of Conduct applies.

2. Sample code of conduct principles/rules of behaviour

The Code of Conduct sets out the guiding principles for all relevant persons on the issues surrounding the integrity of sport and betting.

Guiding principles

1. Be smart: know the rules
2. Be safe: never bet on your sport
3. Be careful: never share sensitive information
4. Be clean: never fix an event
5. Be open: tell someone if you are approached

1. Be smart: know the rules

Find out TRA Ltd.'s betting integrity rules (set out in the Integrity and Gambling Policy) prior to each season, so that you are aware of TRA Ltd.'s most recent position regarding betting.

If you break the rules, you will be caught and risk severe punishments including a potential lifetime ban from shooting and even being subject to a criminal investigation and prosecution.

2. Be safe: never bet on your sport

Never bet on yourself, your opponent or your sport. If you, or anyone in your entourage (coach, friend, family members etc), bet on yourself, your opponent or your sport, you risk being severely sanctioned. It is best to play safe and never bet on any events within your shooting including:

- never betting or gambling on your own matches or any competitions in shooting; including betting on yourself or your team to win, lose or draw as well as any of the different spot bets (such as first goal scorer, most valuable player, etcetera)
- never instructing, encouraging or facilitating any other party to bet on sports you are participating in
- never ensuring the occurrence of a particular incident, which is the subject of a bet and for which you expect to receive or have received any reward, and
- never giving or receiving any gift, payment or other benefit in circumstances that might reasonably be expected to bring you or shooting into disrepute.

3. Be careful: never share sensitive information

As a relevant person you will have access to information that is not available to the general public, such as knowing that a teammate is injured or that the coach is putting out a weakened side. This is considered sensitive, privileged or inside information. This information could be sought by people who would then use that knowledge to secure an unfair advantage to make a financial gain.

There is nothing wrong with you having sensitive information; it is what you do with it that matters. Most relevant persons know that they should not discuss important information with anyone outside of their club, team or coaching staff (with or without reward) where the relevant person might reasonably be expected to know that its disclosure could be used in relation to betting.

4. Be clean: never fix an event

Play fairly, honestly and never fix an event or part of an event. Whatever the reason, do not make any attempt to adversely influence the natural course of an event or competition, or part of an event or competition. Sporting contests must always be an honest test of skill and ability and the results must remain uncertain. Fixing an event or competition, or part of an event or competition goes against the rules and ethics of sport and when caught, you may receive a fine, suspension, lifetime ban from shooting, and/or even a criminal prosecution.

Do not put yourself at risk by following these simple principles:

- Always perform to the best of your abilities.
- Never accept to fix a match. Say no immediately. Do not let yourself be manipulated—unscrupulous individuals might try to develop a relationship with you built on favours or fears that they will then try to exploit for their benefit in possibly fixing an event. This can include the offer of gifts, money and support.
- Seek treatment for addictions and avoid running up debts as this may be a trigger for unscrupulous individuals to target you to fix competitions. Get help before things get out of control.

5. Be open: tell someone if you are approached

If you hear something suspicious or if anyone approaches you to ask about fixing any part of a match then you must tell someone at the Sport (this person is stipulated in the Integrity and Gambling Policy) straight away. If someone offers you money or favours for sensitive information then you should also inform the person specified above. Any threats or suspicions of corrupt behaviour should always be reported. The police and national laws are there to protect you. TRA Ltd. has developed the Policy and the procedures contained in it to help.
